

SEARCHLIGHT TATTOO

CLARENCE PARK,
ST. ALBANS.

Commencing at 9.30 p.m.
GATES OPEN AT 8.30 p.m.

SEARCHLIGHT TOY SOLDIER TATTOO

By the 1st St. Albans Group of Boy Scouts. Entirely produced by G.S.M. C. E. Argent.

New and improved Lighting Effects by the North Metropolitan Electric Power Supply Co.

The Broadcasting throughout the Tattoo is being carried out by Mr. Harry Smith.

Tattoo Music by the St. Albans City Prize Silver Band (conducted by Mr. H. J. Warwick).

PROGRAMME

Tommy, having grown up, had no further use for his Toy Soldiers, and had said farewell to them.

Tommy's small cousin, Billie, on his first visit to England, received as a present, the Toy Soldiers. Being very proud and enthusiastic, he invited his parents to watch them fight and drill at his command.

Episode 1.

BILL'S TOY SOLDIER BATTLE.

A small caravan, encamped in the desert, is attacked by a band of tribesmen, captured, and held to ransom. The Colonel's daughter, who is to marry the dashing young Captain, is among them.

The Captain, fearing something has gone wrong, sends out scouts, who return with the sad news of their fate. The "Troops" are turned out and a battle ensues; all being "killed" except the beautiful daughter and the dashing young Captain.

A bugle, however, has a magic effect, and all come to "Life" to speed forth the happy pair.

INTERLUDE.

Display by the Pipers and Drummers of the 1st S.W. HERTS (WATFORD) BOY SCOUTS (Countess of Clarendon's Own), under Mr. A. F. Brough.

Episode 2.

THE TOY SOLDIERS AT DRILL.

Billie's next effort is to get his "Troops" to drill. They perform various evolutions: march, counter-march, form wheels and handle arms.

Wishing to see them all "go dead" again he brings out his small cannon, and, "down" they go.

SPECIAL DISPLAY

BY THE

Drum and Fife Band of the 2nd Battalion Coldstream Guards

(by kind permission of Lt.-Col. The Rt. Hon. the Earl of Romney),

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

Drum-Major W. R. GODDEN (Senior Drum-Major of the British Army).

Episode 3.

THE PHYSICAL TRAINING SQUAD.

Billie's parents, noticing his interest in the toys, decide to get him some new ones. These are dressed in Physical Training Kit, and he now proceeds to demonstrate with them.

The movements are intricate and are performed to music. At the end he is justly proud of his possessions, and so ends Billie's first show.

INTERLUDE.

Pipers and Drummers of the 1st S.W. HERTS (WATFORD) BOY SCOUTS
(Countess of Clarendon's Own).

FINALE.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

39F

The First St. Albans
Group of Boy Scouts

Extend their very hearty thanks to all those who have helped to make ²² this show a success.